Elder Concert

The AFELA Elder Concert

The Elder Concert is a one-day gathering of the growing network of elder care professionals in Florida.

You choose your preferred location: Ft. Lauderdale or Tampa.

Purposely structured for greater interaction and intensive learning, the Elder Concert presents you with five workshop sessions and one plenary luncheon presentation. At each session, you choose one topic of interest to you and then move from session to session as you meet new people, solidify old relationships, learn from the session facilitators, and make your own contribution to each topic. Written guides and materials accompany each presentation better encouraging you to take the issues back to your workplace for implementation and idea sharing.

Who should attend the Elder Concert?

- ♪ Accountants
- ♪ Assisted Living Facility Administrators
- ♪ Elder Law Attorneys
- ♪ Financial Planners
- ♪ Geriatric Care Managers
- ♪ Guardians
- ♪ Social Workers

The Elder Concert has been designed as an effort of The Florida Bar's Elder Law Section, the Florida State Guardianship Association, NASW — Florida chapter, the Florida Assisted Living Association, the Florida Geriatric Care Managers Association, the Florida Institute of CPAs and the program sponsor, the Academy of Florida Elder Law Attorneys.
